GERALD CARLIN

Better Known as Frankie Dobish

Gerald Carlin enlisted in the Seabees, a branch of the U. S. Navy in June 1942. After a short period of training the unit went overseas, arriving at Guadalcanal in December of the same year. After building a large Air field and doing other construction jobs which were completed in four and a half months the unit went to New Zealand. On arriving there they became a part of the 18th Regiment of the Second Marine Division.

Here the Division received a few months of rest and more training and left in November for the Gilbert Islands where they fought the bloody battle of Tarawa. Mr. Carlin wears the Presidential Unit Citation which was awarded to all surviving members of the Division of this historical battle.

After 52 days at Tarawa they went to Hawaii for rest and additional training, and in May the Division left for the Mariana Islands.

With one other Marine Division and an Army division they invaded Saipan on June 15, 1944. Mr. Carlin went in with the third wave, and describes the battle as the toughest of all his experiences.

The battle for Saipan was over after the Marine Divisions remained on the Island for 42 days. On July 24th the two Divisions invaded Tinian, and in 10 days they secured the Island. At this time Mr. Carlin's Division was detached from the Second Marine Division and once again became the 18th Naval Construction Battalion.

The Battalion remained on Tinian for a year where they built large Air Fields for the B-29 Fortresses.

Mr. Carlin was recently returned to the States for a 30 day furlough, for the first time since he entered the service. He spent part of his time in Cameron with his sister, Mrs. Emilia Strzinek, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. Carlin survived all these hard fought battles without being wounded. However, he contracted Malaria fever while on Guadalcanal, and still suffers from it from time to time.

CAMERON GETS FIRST BALE OF 1945 COTTON

The first bale of 1945 cotton, produced by S. R. Price on the J. D. Turney land near Hanover, was ginned at 9 p. m. Monday.

The bale weighed 500 pounds. Robert Weems was circulating the annual subscription list to raise the bonus for the first bale.

Another bale was expected in the city on Tuesday.

The first bale of 1945 cotton arrived on a date later than the 1944 bale. The crop generally this year is later than the 1944 crop.

Growing conditions have been ideal this year with the exception of heavy rainfall early in the year. Dry weather has increased chances for a good yield. The acreage is the lowest in the history of the country and may be so in Milam county.

JAPS MAY BE SENDING OUT SURRENDER ORDERS

The Swiss Legation said a coded document had been received from the Japs but it contained no reference to surrender terms.

Prime Minister Atlee said in London he had received no surrender report from Tokyo.

A Japanese broadcast at 2 p. m. said the surrender document is on the way.

The same station said the same thing Monday.

Japanese were bowing to the ground in front of the bridge leading to the Imperial Palace weeping in shame because their efforts have not been enough.

A Jap wireless picked up by our monitors said urgent messages are being sent to ships at sea.

A high authority Tuesday said General Douglas MacArthur will be made supreme commander to direct Jap surrender terms.

Navy Still Reporting James Ray Dodson on The List of Missing

James Ray Dodson, Coxswain, United States Navy, is still being reported as missing in action.

Whether this fact may indicate the Navy still believes there is a possibility he may be a prisoner, was indicated in a slight degree when they wrote a letter to his father, J. R. Dodson of Cameron under date of June 7, 1945.

Mr. Dodson said he had received a letter from a relative of one of the survivors of the submarine, Grayback, in which it was said a rumor had emanated from a member of the armed forces in India indicating that the survivors, if any, of the submarine, may have been taken prisoner.

The government has never released any details about the position of the Grayback when it was sunk in the China sea.

Lt. W. J. McNicol, Jr., Assistant officer in charge of the Casualty Section for the Navy, has just written Mr. Dodson in part as follows:

"More than a year has elapsed since your son, James Ray Dodson, Coxswain, United States Navy, was placed in the status of missing. He was serving on board the USS Grayback when that submarine was reported overdue and presumed to be lost.

"The Secretary of the navy has given careful consideration to the disappearance of your son. In view of the lack of information concerning the circumstances under which the vessel aboard which he was serving was lost, and because of the possibility that the personnel may be unreported prisoners of war, the Secretary of the Navy directed that your son be continued in the missing status, until such time as evidence is received which clearly establishes the fact that there is no hope of his survival, or until word is received he is alive."

May See Surrender

LAYNE HARWELL

Seaman Aboard Missouri

Layne Harwell, Seaman aboard the battleship, Missouri, may witness the surrender of Japan.

Early Tuesday, Chairman of the House Naval Affairs Committee, in Washington, suggested that Japan's formal surrender, he received on the battleship Missouri in deference to President Truman's home state.

It was likely the Missouri will be named and the battleship will move into Tokyo bay where the Japs will come aboard to sign the terms of surrender.

Seaman Harwell is 19 years old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harwell of Cameron. He graduated at Yoe High School in 1943. He is now First Class Seaman and the only Milam county boy serving on the battleship Missouri.

HIROHITO SAYS ENVOY NOT READY FOR FRIDAY

Japan's emperor said Wednesday that he would be unable to meet the demand of General Douglas MacArthur that peace envoys be in Manila Friday.

Thus the first condition or command of the new Allied supreme commander has been denied.

The emperor issued orders at 2 a. m. central war time Thursday that firing cease. This means nothing. The war goes on and days will be required to stop it.

Russia is still fighting the Japs. One Jap plane attacked the Third U. S. fleet. Fighting is still in progress in the Philippines. The Third fleet under Admiral Halsey has destroyed 1300 Jap planes during the last 72 hours of the war.

President Truman has held his first Peace time conference. He said Japan will not be divided into zones of occupation and General MacArthur will be in complete control. The hour of surrender will be announced by General MacArthur.

Sunday, August 19, has been proclaimed a day of prayer and thanksgiving. When Victory is proclaimed over Japan it will not be a holiday.

Japan surrendered unconditionally to the Big 4 powers Tuesday, August 14, 1945.

President Harry S. Truman announced the surrender at 7 p. m. at a press conference at the White House. At the same time Prime Minister Atlee of Great Britain announced the surrender to the British commonwealth of nations.

In Moscow and in Chungking the surrender was broadcast to the people of the Soviet Union and China.

General Douglas MacArthur was named supreme commander and has directed the Japanese emperor how surrender terms must be carried out.

On Thursday General MacArthur informed the emperor that authorized representatives whose identity must be known, are to leave Japan on Friday in a white plane marked with green crosses. They are to land on the island of Ie off Okinawa where they will be taken aboard an American army plane and flown to Manila where they will be forced to sign the pact of peace which strips Japan of all her possessions gained by conquest and reduces her borders to the home islands and such other small islands as the Allies may direct.

Delay in the Japanese reply exasperated government leaders in all the capitals. The Jap note was received in Washington around 6 p. m. Tuesday by the Swiss Legation and was first delivered to the State Department where Secretary Burns lost no time in walking across the narrow street to the offices of the President in the White House.

Mr. Truman said he was satisfied with the reply and that the Japs had surrendered unconditionally under the Potsdam ultimatum.

After the Potsdam note was delivered to the Japanese government the Japs countered with an offer to surrender provided their emperor could remain on the throne. The Allies agreed and the surrender followed on Tuesday.

The Allies stipulated that the emperor could remain on his throne only if he takes orders from General MacArthur. To this the Japs agreed. The surrender note was signed by Tojo who was the Japanese Prime Minister when war was declared and who once said that "war could be waged with leisure." Japan's war minister committed suicide after the surrender.

CONGRESSMAN TALKS ON WORLD PEACE PROSPECT

Congressman Bob Poage of Waco told members of the Lions Club and their guests Tuesday night that the San Francisco Charter for world peace is by no means a perfect document but is the best and only agreement yet reached for the future peace of the world.

Mr. Poage, enjoying a respite from the duties of a congressman in heat seared Washington, said he felt greatly encouraged over future peace prospects but laid emphasis on the necessity for the United States, Great Britain, Russia, France and China to give effect and force to the Security Council under the League charter. These nations, he pointed out, must not fail the world in responsible leadership.

More than 200 members and guests heard the congressman. The meeting was held in the basement of the First Christian Church with N. L. Caperton, President of the Lions, presiding.

The program included a solo by Mrs. Lincoln Barber, accompanied by the piano by Miss Shirley Horstmann.

FIGHTING FLARES UP ON 300 MILE FRONT

A three pronged Russian drive was making good progress in Manchuko, puppet state under Japan and on the northern border of Manchuria.

An allied report said the Red Army had also crossed the border of Manchuria in several places but there was no confirmation from Moscow.

The Reds crossed into Manchuko in a great pincer movement, the strategic value of which would be to neutralize the port of Dairen and to strike at the city of Mukden.

Soviet Russia lost no time in attacking after her declaration of war on Japan. The attack was accompanied by a small number of Red planes.

So far no comment has been made by the Japs in Tokyo.

Early Thursday a Tokyo announcement which was credited to the official Japanese news agency, declared that emergency transmissions would be made during the forenoon. Up to 2 p. m. Thursday nothing had come from the Jap radio.

Many observers believed that the war would end in a few weeks.

The Japanese cabinet has been called into extraordinary session.

United States Airmen in China, it was disclosed, knew a month ago that Russia would declare war on Japan.

The Japanese ambassador, Naotake Sato has been interned to Moscow. The world was waiting for announcement or official comment from Tokyo on the sudden turn of events. So far the Japs have made no comment on the Russian declaration of war.

Due to the power with which the Red army has struck in the Manchuko and Manchuria, Moscow was believed to have been building for the war for many months.

WAR

House was killed in air action in the Pacific in 1943. Peace terms were dictated from the White House by the President of the United States.

Japan attacked the United States on December 7, 1941, at Pearl Harbor, dealing a serious blow to the Pacific Fleet. It was a dark hour for America as President Roosevelt asked for a declaration of war on Japan. Then Germany and Italy both declared war on the United States. In turn the United States declared war on Germany and Italy.

Great Britain declared war on Japan a few hours before the United States declared war.

First blow struck against Japan was on Guadalcanal in August 1942, three years ago. Men of the Navy and the Marines pioneered amphibious landings, a method of attack which was to lead our forces from that very beginning all through the islands, the reconquest of the Philippines and finally to Okinawa and to Tokyo bay.

Fighting was still in progress. Japanese planes were still trying to sink our warships.

Premier Suzuki of Japan said Tuesday that his country was forced to surrender because of the atomic bomb and Russia's entry into the war. In truth Japan was beaten to her knees before the bomb was dropped and before Russian entered the war.

American industrial power saved the world and won the war. Before the end came 12 million Americans were under arms. As the late President Roosevelt termed it, here was the "arsenal of democracy." The United Nations were supplied and the long and bloody struggle began.

Decision to finish off Germany and Italy first proved to be the best strategy of the war. Japan was held off at the very door of Australia by small forces of men and naval and air units under command of General MacArthur who had left the Philippines under orders from the President shortly before the fall of Corregidor.

Italy was the first of the Axis powers to fall after the Germans had been driven out of North Africa and Sicily. Germany surrendered on May 8, 1945, and three months later Japan was forced to capitulate unconditionally and thus World War 2 had come to an end.

Among Cameron men who have recently been sent home from overseas duty are: T-4 Alfred Biskup and Cpl. Amil F. Kohutek.

O. J. Brode of Ben Arnold was in Cameron Wednesday.

Miss Jane Tyson of Austin has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tyson for a few days.

Mrs. A. N. McInnis of Gainesville, Fla., has been a recent guest of her cousin, Mrs. Daisy Spratt. Mrs. Spratt also had as a house guest Miss Evelyn Gaston of Meridian, Miss.

Wallace Dunham has received an Honorable Discharge from the United States Army.

Sgt. Elmer Floyd formerly of Cameron is a patient in the McCloskey Hospital.

Best Way to Celebrate The Peace

We were sitting on Bill Webster's porch the other night, talking about how we'd celebrate when the Japs surrendered.

Lem Toller allowed as how he was going to start his vacation then and there—and spend it fishing. Ed Mapes was going to take his family to Mountain City for a big feed and a picture show.

Bill Webster had the last suggestion. "I'm going to pour a glass of beer and drink a toast to our fighting men," he says, "and that is just as far as my celebrating's going to go. I'm going to make sure of being on the job next morning."

From where I sit, Bill Webster has the right idea. When Peace comes, there's going to be a whole new world to build. There's a really big job to be done. A glass of beer, the beverage of moderation, and a good night's sleep to be ready for the task ahead—that's the right way to welcome Victory!

Sgt. Raymond Lesikar Marries Rockdale Girl

In a beautiful, impressive ring ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Galveston on July 8, 1945, at 7 o'clock in the evening, Miss Lu Clay Allen was married to Sgt. Raymond V. Lesikar, the Rev. W. W. Hawthorne read the ceremony.

Mrs. L. M. Anderson attended the bride as maid of honor and Sgt. Chas. Pflug served the groom as best man.

The bride's flowers were orchids, and the matron of honor wore white carnations.

The service was witnessed by an appreciative group of relatives and friends.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for the wedding party at the home of Mrs. Thomas Smith Blake, the hostesses being Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Tommy Blake, with Miss Sallie Blake assisting. Little four year old Ann Allen Blake acted as junior hostess.

The dining room was decorated with lace fern and flowers of pastel shades and ivory colored candles. Mrs. Tommy Blake and small daughter, Ann, presided at the punch bowl. A Maderia embroidered linen table runner covered the punch table and another the buffet where sandwiches were served by Sallie Blake and Mrs. Harold Labenski, both table and buffet being decorated with flowers and ferns and softly glowing candles.

A square Maderia luncheon cloth adorned the dining table where the bride's cake was placed. The wedding cake was a lovely pure white two-tiered confection topped by the conventional bride and groom figurines. It was placed in the center of the round table surrounded by a circle of lace fern, lighted by tall candles.

Sgt. and Mrs. Lesikar together cut the cake, and at the close of the evening little Ann Blake blew out the candles.

Mrs. Lesikar is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Allen of Rockdale, and Sgt. Lesikar is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Lesikar of Cameron. They are now at home to their many friends at 2318 Avenue O Galveston.

Marguerite Lesikar On Personnel Staff

Conferences are held in which the personnel involved in the problem, meet with competent counselors from the employee relations staff. Their situation is discussed fully, the problem is diagnosed and the most suitable remedial action is recommended.

In charge of employee relations are Miss Marguerite Lesikar of Cameron and Mrs. Mildred Horn at Camp Hood's South Camp. Miss Lesikar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vince Lesikar of Cameron.

Uncle Sam Pins Orchids On Local Women For Saving Used Fats!

Things have really been happening to fat-salvage-collection figures since town and farm women got busy on the job! Latest official government records show that their fat savings have left the excellent record of city women 'way behind.

But it isn't a drop too much. This year, we face a shortage of 1 billion, 600 million pounds of fats in domestic supplies. Tons more of war and home-front supplies made from fats are needed!

Farm folks get more meat these days than most city people—so it's up to them to save the fats. Skim stews, soups, gravies. Scrape pans. Melt down meat trimmings. It all helps you fill the fat-salvage can, and you get up to 4¢ and 2 red points a pound. If you have any difficulty, call your Home Demonstration or County Agent. Approved by WPA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.

SAY THEY HAVE JUST RECEIVED ALLIED NOTE

An official Japanese news agency said at noon Monday that the Japanese government had just received the Allied note regarding acceptance of the Japanese proposal to surrender.

The note which laid down terms under which the Japs could keep their emperor, was dispatched to Japan through the Swiss government at 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

As this war news is being put into print it is now Tuesday in Japan, thus almost 4 days have been elapsed since the Japs were told they could surrender provided their emperor was under subordination to an Allied supreme commander.

The Japs were certain to be lying about the whole matter. The influential New York Times said the Japs are utilizing the time either to perfect new weapons or to make needed military preparations.

The war was going on with the Russians making the greatest advances in the history of warfare. Russian Marines were landing on strategic coasts north of the Jap mainland.

Sea and air attacks were being carried out against the Japs and so far as could be ascertained the war was gathering momentum.

Politicians and diplomats were still trusting the Japs. Nearly everybody else were opposed to giving them anything in the way of concessions about their emperor.

News agencies were standing by over the week end to give the news when it breaks. A false flash sent the world to celebration last night. A press association offered 5 thousand dollars reward for information leading to the identity of the person or persons who are responsible for this false news.

At noon Monday it was agreed that anything may now happen. In official quarters it was still the belief the Japs will surrender. That they may seek to delay the matter as long as possible is certain.

From Guam where General Spaatz has been directing the atomic bomb attacks, it was indicated that patience was running out and the Japs may feel the weight of these bombs any moment.

Granting that some time was required in Berne to properly translate the Allied ultimatum, it was still certain the Jap news agency has lied about the receipt of the note, for throughout the day Sunday and until midnight Monday reporters were on hand and the Jap reply was regarded as long overdue.

BIG POWERS AGREE TO LIMIT EMPEROR POWER

Japan's offer to surrender conditionally has been rejected by the four great powers.

A new ultimatum has been dispatched in which the four great powers, United States, Russia, Great Britain and China, agree to accept the surrender of Japan under the Potsdam ultimatum, with the additional concession that the Emperor Hirohito is to remain head of the Japanese government and who is to be utilized to effect the terms of the Potsdam ultimatum.

The Allied powers rejected the Japanese offer to surrender on the condition that their Emperor would in no way be compromised as head of the Japanese state.

The Allies would not accept this proposal but instead have agreed to accept surrender and have disposed of the question of Hirohito's position by stating they will permit him to retain his throne, at least for the present, but he must bow to a supreme Allied commander whom the White House announced at noon will be an American. Whether General Douglas MacArthur will be named remains to be seen. Some quarters hold he is the logical choice.

The supreme commander will give orders to the Emperor. Hirohito will be the mouthpiece during the process of effecting surrender under the Potsdam ultimatum. The Emperor will be acceptable as the responsible head of the government, to place signature on the terms of capitulation. It was made plain there has been no deviation from the Potsdam terms and that if any concession has been made to the Japanese it is only to effect surrender.

After the country has been occupied, Jap armies surrender, the navy surrenders, the Japanese people are to be given an opportunity to say by vote what kind of government they want.

Emperor Hirohito is to be under orders from the Supreme Allied Commander, yet to be named and his liberties as ruler are to be subject to the Allied supreme commander.

At first the question raised by the Japs over their Emperor stirred up a storm over the world with many countries crying out against any concessions; that Hirohito is a war criminal and as such must be executed.

The Potsdam agreement calls for the punishment of war criminals in Japan. Whether the Emperor will be so punished is not ruled out by the new surrender ultimatum, it was said.

The Emperor is held responsible for immediate safe delivery of all prisoners of war held in Japan and in Japanese occupied territories, to a safe port of embarkation.

Japanese forces in every sector of the Pacific front are to be surrendered at once and the Emperor is held personally responsible for carrying out the terms of the treaty in every detail.

It was indicated at noon from Washington that the Japs may not make their reply until Sunday or Monday.

General Douglas MacArthur from his headquarters in the Philippines, said he regarded the developments as indicating the immediate end of the war and he was glad it is all over.

Admiral Halsey was standing by with his fleet, watching for treachery and threatening to go into action again.

Moscow ordered the Red army to "kill the enemy without mercy."

Japanese newspapers were gloomy. The people of Japan do not know of the offer to surrender.

Hirohito may feel his retention as a victory. Australia resents his retention.

Secretary of State Byrnes signed the ultimatum, or reply, at 9:30 a. m. central war time Saturday. It was dispatched through the Swiss government.

Events were moving swiftly. Admiral Nimitz's war planes were keeping up their attack and everywhere fighting was in progress.

Six American soldiers were killed and 30 wounded on Okinawa during celebrations over prospects of peace.

Senator Tom Connally, head of the powerful Foreign Relations Committee of the Senate, said the terms sent early Saturday to the Japs, are satisfactory to him.

Government agencies began cancellation of war contracts. Re-conversion was getting under way.

The first atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima was said Saturday now to be obsolete. The new one is more deadly and easier to make.

Mrs. L. C. Peevyhouse who has been sick for sometime at the Newton Memorial Hospital, is much improved and has been taken to her home.

WASHINGTON WAITS FOR NEW PROPOSALS

While the world awaited official end of the war in the Pacific Allied capitals were still waiting on Tokyo.

Anger was rising among the people in all the countries affected by the war because the Japs apparently were taking their own time and at noon Tuesday there was nothing official to indicate the war will end short of complete military victory over the enemy.

From Moscow early Tuesday orders went out to the Red army to wage war with all the might of the Soviet forces.

Fighting was in progress on all other fronts.

Early Tuesday what was thought to be the Japanese reply was a long document received at Berne, Switzerland. Later it was announced this note contained no reference to the surrender. Contents of the note which required 5 hours to decode, were not made public but will be announced when received in Washington late Tuesday.

Belief was expressed the Japanese note may contain additional proposals. Thus the Allies who were agreed to have won the war were actually under humiliation by Tokyo.

The Japanese emperor last Tuesday, Tokyo time, issued a statement to the Japanese people in which he blamed the United States for the Jap predicament. It was the first time in the history of the Nipponese throne an emperor had made any statement direct to the people.

As the situation appeared at noon, the question was admissible: Who is winning the war?

At best nothing official was expected before 11 p. m. Tuesday or early Wednesday. If the Japanese now are asking further concessions the humiliating spectacle may go on for days.

Angry Americans are demanding more atomic bomb attacks.

Chinese troops have been ordered to keep fighting. The Reds have gained another 100 miles.

Around 2 p. m. the Army said that an attempt had been made to spy on the atomic bomb.

WILL QUIT IF HIROHITO IS PERMITTED TO RULE

Japan has offered to surrender under the Potsdam ultimatum on the condition that Emperor Hirohito is permitted to continue as their ruler it was disclosed early Friday.

The Japs say they cannot quit if so doing in anyway weakens the prestige of their god who is Hirohito. Many of the Allied nations have indicated the Japanese Emperor as a war criminal. Among these nations, China.

If the Japs are allowed to quit under the terms they proposed, it will be a conditional surrender and not unconditional.

The world was waiting momentarily news that the Japs have quit. Under the Potsdam ultimatum allied forces are to occupy certain portions of the Japanese mainland.

The British government cabinet held an emergency conference early Friday.

President Truman and Secretary of State Byrnes had lunch today in the office of the President while heads of government departments were seen frequently visiting and leaving the white house.

It was said that the Japanese government had addressed its offer of surrender to the United States, Great Britain and Russia. It was not clear why China was not included. The capitals of the allied countries including Chung King were in constant communication throughout the morning.

Sweden and Switzerland have been asked by the Japanese government to act as intermediaries. Soviet Russia has previously refused to transmit peace proposals at the Potsdam conference.

At 2 p. m. it looked as though Admiral Halsey would soon be riding Hirohito's white horse with that $2,000 saddle the Denver Chamber of Commerce sent.

Korea was invaded early Friday by the Russian army. The Reds have pushed deep into Manchuria on a wide front.

The Japanese main land was undergoing a blasting from 2000 carrier planes and 79 B-29 fortress bombers where over the mainland.

There were still no accurate reports on the second of the atomic bombs dropped on Nagasaki.

President Truman in his address to the nation Thursday evening said the atomic bomb would continue to be used on the Japs.

The Navy Needs 2000 Waves Per Month

The Waves of the Navy celebrated their third birthday on Monday of this week. The local girls are helping to send fourth year off to a good start by offering their services to the Navy. With hard work the WAVES have established themselves in the hundreds of shore stations on continental United States and Hawaii, where they work side by side with Navy men in our great task of building and supporting a fleet strong enough to finish off Japan.

The Navy is now asking for two thousand WAVES a month, half of them for general duties, such as Seaman striking for Yeomen, Storekeeper or Specialist. The other thousand per month are being selected for the Hospital Corps, for the thirty-odd varieties of jobs to be done in Naval hospitals.

Texas girls have never let their Nation down so if you are between the ages of 20 and 35, have completed at least two years of high school, and have no children under 18, write to the Navy Recruiting Station, 207 Old Post Office Building, Austin, Texas, or come into the office there and talk with the WAVES Recruiter who will be in town every Friday. The WAVES need you.

Peace News Received Joyfully Here; Many Local men in Pacific

Cameron received the news of the surrender of Japan with joy and thanksgiving.

Many local men are serving in the armed forces in the Pacific.

Generally the people here observed the news quietly. Many of the youngsters brought out ancient supplies of firecrackers and expressed their enthusiasm in that way.

Business houses closed immediately and remained closed all day Wednesday. Church services were held at St. Monica's Catholic and the Methodist churches.

When Germany surrendered on May 8, the people, looking to the job to be done in the Pacific did not observe the capitulation of the principal axis partner, but kept at their jobs.
